AGENDA

NOTES

- We introduced ourselves and which position we are in at 2:50
- (@2:55 we started discussing business)The two presidents start discussing the contest we did poor in: the community service, which the second VP are in charge of, we should try a lot of events that many people would do with 207 members we had to divide the 360 or so hours ending up with only around 1.5 hours per person anyone with ideas can come up with what would be great opportunities taken into consideration.

- An idea was food pantries. But it was suggested that though there are many, it's not a good idea because they required 1 adults per 3 kids and also they take a limited amount of volunteers. "If an organization can't trust us, we shouldn't give our services." (Said by Ms Fillion). Another idea would be to create a Google doc with all of us coming up with ideas of ways to get community service up.
- We were good at marshmallow catapults. With our builder, Sonny gone, we need to find someone who can build another great one; the engineer's and Deanna suggestion: her and her dad are possibilities.
- We had got no points for arrows. (One broke and so we didn't bring it).
- The website should be updated after every single event. We used the Forum BLArum. To add to the website, we should all consider writing articles. It would help out. An idea of a social media subgroups was brought up: Possibly making a Blacc Facebook group / page. The more accounts, the better for the club's publicity.
- The classic's day skit should be not thought of last minute. We need to think of the skit way before hand.
- First VP's idea is to start a channel on YouTube like meet the board videos and challenge videos.
- we should talk about social media jobs on another day. Right now we don't have time.
- We are not raising much money with the pledges.
- This is the first year that we got 3rd place overall.
- We need more people for certamen.
- SHEET PASSED AROUND(The president share the folder with the board that contains a spreadsheet that we'd fill out / add our information.)
- Second Wednesdays of the month is the designated day for meetings as of now.
- Our next meeting should be September 14th.
- Community Services Club is publicity. We need a group together over the summer. One person cannot do it on their own. (Their hours won't be added to our total).
- We all almost read our emails which is good for staying in touch. (Maddy doesn't).
- Fair foods for community service is usually on Saturdays.
- The first VP is asking for pictures and two questions to add to our website about the officers.
- At States we were first at the Worm but they have done more than one trial so that messed up our team's winning.
- If we do five Outreach (small / large group to teach small kids about Latin and public buildings) it would do us good. Something after 2:15 would be best.
- Get the secretary notes on a google doc.
- The first board meeting of the 2016-2017 year has come to an end.
